PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

I, the undersigned, agree to the following terms in consideration of my review of entries in the 2004 PCD Awards:

Confidential Information

For purposes of this Agreement, "confidential information" includes but is not limited to the entries and media submitted for the judging of entries to the 2004 PCD Awards. This paragraph shall not apply to information and documentation in the public domain or which may otherwise be generally available to the public.

Acknowledgements

I acknowledge the importance of holding in confidence the confidential information which is entrusted to me or to which I am exposed or have access as a part of the judging process. I agree that holding such information in confidence is critical to the PCD Awards and to the business of its sponsors, in particular EPSScentral LLC.

Restrictions on Disclosure and Use

I understand that I may not disclose any confidential information to anyone not directly involved with the judging of the PCD Awards. I understand that even disclosures of the context of judging generally should be on a need-to-know basis only. I agree that I shall not use any confidential information without the written consent of the PCD Awards, EPSScentral LLC, and the entrant.

Conflict of Interest

Judges must excuse themselves from judging programs for which they have had some previous association. Association could be defined as working for the company that produced the program, working on some aspect of the program, or any other connection that might be construed as a "conflict of interest."
